Die Martis, 9. Feb: 1640.

WHereas complaint hath beene made unto us by Iames Lord Arch-Biſhop of Armagh, and Primate of all Ireland, that a certaine Pamphlet hath been lately moſt injuriouſly fathered upon him and ſpread abroad under the falſe title of The Biſhop of Armaghs direction to the houſe of Parliament, concerning the Liturgie and Epiſcopall Governement. It is this day ordered in the Commons Houſe of Parliament, that the Maſter and Companie of Stationers, and all others whom it may concerne, ſhall take ſuch courſe for the ſuppreſſing of the ſaid Booke, that they ſhall not ſuffer it to be put in print, or if it be already printed, not permit the ſame to be divulged. And if any man ſhall preſume to print or publiſh the Booke above mentioned, That he or they ſhall be then lyable to the Cenſure of the ſaid Houſe.

H: Elſynge Cler: Domus Com: